TOURISTIC ATTRACTIONS

TRACES OF ANTARCTICA

Getting around Punta Arenas and the Magellan Strait

Follow the footsteps of Captain Cook, Roald Amundsen, Robert Scott, Jean-Baptiste Charcot, Sir Ernest Shackleton, Piloto Pardo, Richard Byrd, and other great men of the golden age of Antarctic exploration who came to Patagonia during their voyages of discovery and survival amidst the ice.

Spend some time living within the spirit of polar adventure which inhabits the Magellan's region. Follow the link below to the cultural and historic guidebook to +50 locations in Punta Arenas and along the Magellan Strait.

This guidebook is a cultural contribution of the Chilean Antarctic Institute, in celebration of its 50 years of service to the nation.

PUNTA ARENAS: ANTARCTIC GATEWAY CITY

WELCOME ALL MEMBERS TO THE 2018
MEETING OF THE SG-ASAM

INFORMATION NOTE

Computing facilities

A wireless network (similar to that at CCAMLR Headquarters in Hobart) will be in operation at the venue for the duration of the meeting, allowing access to meeting documentation and to the Internet. Internet is limited in Punta Arenas, so it is recommended to download the papers ahead of the meetings. Limited printing facilities for delegates will be provided.

Social functions

Details of various events associated with CCAMLR meetings in Punta Arenas will be distributed at a later date.

Travel Arrangements

Travel arrangements to and from the meetings are the responsibility of the participants.

Visa Requirements

Participants are requested to pay attention to the instructions concerning Visa requirements for visiting Chile. A valid passport for the whole period of permanency in Chile is mandatory.

Citizens from the following countries must pay a fee when entering the country: USA, Canada, Australia and New Zealand.

How to get to Punta Arenas

There are many airlines to/from Santiago de Chile, the country's main international airport.

There are only two airlines from Santiago to Punta Arenas: LAN Chile (www.lan.cl) and Sky Airline (www.skyairline.cl). Direct flights take 3.5 h (LAN only).

There are 'taxi' or cabs for travelling from the airport to the city. Booking before the flight is recommended, as there is a limited amount of cabs at the airport. The cost per cab is around USD 17.-

WEATHER

At only 2 h flight to Antarctica, Punta Arenas is the southern city in Chile and a natural gateway to Antarctica.

Local weather conditions are cold during winter, with some snow. Frost are common overnight, so careful when walking.

Average conditions in May are:

Min-Max air temperature: -3.1 to +8°C

Rain: 69 mm (2/3 in rain and 1/3 snow)

Humidity: 77%.

Polar Fronts are common, driving temporarily temps down to -13°C. Winds, though less strong than during summer, can reach 100 km/h.
